CAIS EMBARCADERO

We feed the fire.

The fire feeds us.

Throughout this cycle, our lives happen.

Around the ember, we make friends.

We tell stories. We collect memories.

We make (and change) up our minds.

All in the name of this sacred ritual.

It goes way beyond the preparation of the barbecue.

A ceremony that connects us to who we are.

Hand grabbing the meat. Sharpening the knife.

Crossing through the smoke.

For everything those things mean,

we decided to make it our reason.

We are gauchos with open minds and borders.

We respect our whole tradition.

Do we agree on everything? No.

Our mission is to build a piece of the world we wish to live in.

With a lot of exchange and no prejudice.

Less constrained. More good vibes.

Made here, to the world

European refugees who fled to Brasil,
the italians spread around here and soon
fell in love for what they've found.

Instead of liqueurs and apéritifs, they found cachaça. But it was the combination made by a vermouth brand that created one of its most known and loved classics, mixing italian and brazilian drinking cultures. Cachaça and vermouth were mixed together and from that the cocktail was born.

NEGRONI

all the way

A fearless and high spirited count

Everyone used to drink it the american way, a vermouth and campari cocktail with a sparkling water touch.

Until Count Camillo Negroni changed it up and made it a worldwide explosion.

"An american, but stronger" he asked the bartender.
Everyone heard about it, and the Negroni drink was then born.
