IGUATEMI

*We feed the fire.
The fire feeds us.*

*Throughout this cycle, our lives happen.
Around the ember, we make friends.
We tell stories. We collect memories.*

*We make (and change) up our minds.
All in the name of this sacred ritual.
It goes way beyond the preparation of the barbecue.*

*A ceremony that connects us to who we are.
Hand grabbing the meat. Sharpening the knife.
Crossing through the smoke.
For everything those things mean,
we decided to make it our reason.*

*We are gauchos with open minds and borders.
We respect this whole tradition.
Do we agree on everything? No.*

*Our mission is to build a piece of the world we wish to live in.
With a lot of exchange and no prejudice.
Less constrained. More good vibes.*

DARK 'N STORMY

45

Bermuda, 1910

Citrusy, with the sweet presence of rum.
Gosling's Black Seal rum, lime, sugar and ginger ale.

What is good needs to travel the world.

It was with this vision that sailors set sail from Bermuda and crossed dark, stormy seas to bring this precious liquid around the world.

*The incredible spirit traveled far and wide alongside a simple yet fantastic drink recipe.
Thus, the Dark 'n Stormy was born, named after the journey taken by these heroes.*

CLASSICS

TRADITIONAL COCKTAILS

Iconic cocktails, with stories and unique flavors

OLD FASHIONED

49

United States, 19th century

Sweet and bold. Bulleit Bourbon Whisky, sugar and Angostura Aromatic.

Where it all began...

The Whiskey Cocktail, mentioned in 1806 in a newspaper column, evolved over the years with various recipes including muddled fruits and distinctive touches, but was baptized and immortalized by popular demand as the drink made the old fashioned way.

A stimulating beverage made with spirits, water, sugar and bitters, which went on to conquer the world.

WHISKY SOUR

42

The Bartender's Guide by Jerry Thomas, 1862

Balanced, with a pronounced whisky flavor and a creamy texture. Jack Daniel's, lemon juice, sugar and egg white.

39

Dick Bradsell, 1980

A reinterpretation with character and freshness. Gin infused with blackberry, lemon and raspberry syrup.

MOJITO

35

Francis Drake, late 16th century

The definition of a refreshing drink.
Rum, lime, sugar, mint and sparkling water.

TOMMY'S MARGARITA

35

Julio Bermejo, late 1990s

Bold and savory despite its edge, with mineral and citrus notes. El Jimador Tequila, lemon juice and agave syrup.

MOSCOW MULE

35

Cock 'n Bull, Hollywood, 1941

Refreshing and mildly spicy.
Vodka, lime, ginger syrup and ginger ale.

APEROL SPRITZ

39

Venice, late 19th century

Perfect balance between bitterness and freshness.
Aperol, sparkling wine and sparkling water.

NEGRONI

39

Bold and robust.
Campari, gin and sweet vermouth.

PENINCILIN

45

Sam Ross, New York, 2005

Bold and complex.
Johnnie Walker Black, lime, ginger, honey and a touch of 10-year-old single malt Scotch whisky.

DRY MARTINI

45

Harry Johnson, 1888

Dry, spirit-forward and delicate. Tanqueray
London Dry Gin, Extra Dry vermouth and olive.

COSMOPOLITAN

55

Toby Cecchini and Cheryl Cook, 1980s

Perfectly balanced between citrusy, sweet and boozy. Vodka, Cointreau, cranberry juice and lime.

ESPRESSO MARTINI

39

Dick Bradsell, 1983

Bold coffee flavor with a well-balanced sweetness. Vodka, Nespresso coffee, coffee liqueur and sugar syrup.

CAMPARI & TONIC

Tropical and incredibly refreshing. Gin and Monster Energy Mango Loco.

EXPERIENCE

PERFECT SERVE

Premium selected spirits, served with precision to transform every sip into an experience.

RABO DE GALO

69

Culture of our people and the pursuit of perfection.

Keeping alive and elevating the culture of national cocktails with the very best.

Weber Haus 5 Years Solera Cachaça,
Cynar 70, Antica Formula vermouth.

What is ours deserves to conquer the world

Refugees in Brazil, fleeing conflicts in Europe, Italians spread across this new land. Soon, they fell in love with what they found here.

They even traded their liqueurs and aperitifs for cachaça.

But the ingenuity of a vermouth brand created a simple cocktail that brought these two passions together.

Cachaça and vermouth came together to create an iconic classic, which evolved alongside Brazilian culture through the union of Italians and Brazilians. Thus, Rabo de Galo was born.

NEGRONI

69

Elegance in simplicity.

The finest selection of ingredients to make the classic even more unforgettable. Tanqueray No. Ten Gin, Campari and Antica Formula vermouth.

ZACAPA OLD FASHIONED

85

A timeless classic elevated by excellence.

The perfect cocktail to elevate the experience with any aged spirit. Zacapa 23 Rum, Angostura Orange, Angostura Aromatic and brown sugar.

TANQUERAY N° TEN MARTINI 59

Purezza, equilibrio e refinamento.

Purity, balance and refinement. The perfect gin for a Dry Martini, with all its elegance and complexity. Tanqueray No. Ten Gin, Noilly Prat Dry vermouth, Angostura Orange and Sicilian lemon zest.

NEGRONI

all the way

A fearless and high spirited count

Everyone used to drink it the american way, a vermouth and campari cocktail with a sparkling water touch.

Until Count Camillo Negroni changed it up and made it a worldwide explosion.

"An american, but stronger" he asked the bartender.
Everyone heard about it, and the Negroni drink was then born.
